Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)(c) Place of Compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
 - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
 - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

- (i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.
- (ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

SCHEDULE B

Pursuant to Rules 34 and 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and in accordance with the instructions and definitions listed below, Defendants Masimo Corporation and Sound United, LLC (collectively, “Masimo”) request that Samsung Electronics America, Inc. (“Samsung”) produce the following documents and things for inspection and copying.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Masimo requests that Samsung produce all documents within its possession, custody or control, regardless of whether these documents are located within the United States or outside the United States or whether possessed by Samsung, or by its United States or foreign subsidiaries or affiliates, present or past officers, directors, agents, employees, investigators, or attorneys.
2. Each request shall be construed independently. No request shall limit the scope of any other request.
3. All responsive documents and things shall be produced either as they are kept in the usual course of business, or organized and labeled to correspond to the categories in the requests. If there are no documents or things responsive to a specific request, please so state in your response.
4. Where an objection is made to a request for production, state all grounds upon which your objection is based, and state whether documents are being withheld by reason of the objection. Please respond to all portions of that request that do not fall within the ambit of your objection.
5. Each request calls for the production of each document in its entirety, without abbreviation, redaction, expurgations, or modification.

6. Each request seeks production of all documents and things described, along with any addenda, attachments, drafts, and non-identical copies, as found or located in either Samsung's business files or in the personnel files of its officers, directors, agents or employees, together with a copy of the descriptive file folder or other identifying characteristics in their entirety.

DEFINITIONS

7. "Samsung," "you," and "your" shall mean Samsung Electronics America, Inc., and any and all United States or foreign predecessors, successors, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, employees, officers, directors, agents, attorneys, representatives, or other persons or entities who have acted or purported to act for or on behalf of any of them.

8. "Any" shall be construed also to mean "all," and "all" shall be construed also to mean "any," and the terms "and" as well as "or" shall be construed both disjunctively and conjunctively. In each case, those terms should be construed to bring within the scope of the request all responses that might otherwise be construed to be outside the scope; in other words, to give each request its broadest possible meaning.

9. "Document" or "documents" shall be construed in the broadest sense permissible under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26 and 34, and shall mean all things and originals, copies and drafts of any writing or other tangible or intangible thing from which data or information can be obtained, in Samsung's possession, custody or control, including, but not limited to, all written, printed, typed, transcribed, electronically encoded matter, any e-mail or other electronically transmitted communication, any sound or video recording, any photograph or graphic matter or any other thing containing information or communications or from which information or communications may be derived.

10. The terms “concerning,” “relating to,” “relate,” and “related to,” mean, in whole or in part, alluding to, responding to, concerning, relating to, connected with, involving, commenting on, in respect of, about, associated with, discussing, evidencing, showing, describing, reflecting, analyzing, summarizing, memorializing, consisting of, constituting, identifying, stating, tending to support, tending to discredit, referring to, or in any way touching upon.

11. The term “person” shall mean, in the plural as well as the singular, any natural person, firm, corporation, unincorporated association, division, subsidiary, partnership, or other business or legal entity or governmental body, including any and all representatives, successors, heirs, assigns, officers, directors, servants, employees, agents, attorneys, or other persons or entities who have acted or purported to act for or on behalf of any of them.

12. The past tense includes the present tense, and vice versa, as necessary, to bring within the scope of these requests documents that might otherwise be beyond their scope.
